This course is offered by the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts. For more information about the college, visit our website: <https://cisa.asu.edu/>  (<https://cisa.asu.edu/>)

Catalog Description: Students will engage in a critical analysis of individual, cultural, and organizational diversity.

Course Description: This course develops students' understanding of the importance and diversity of cultures worldwide and within the United States. The goal is to provide students with models and tools to appreciate culture, discuss cross-cultural issues as they apply to human behavior and interaction in various settings, and develop the cultural competence needed to effectively interact with people from diverse cultures in an increasingly global and interconnected world. The course approaches diversity from local and global perspectives. It addresses issues of cultural pluralism and multiculturalism, intercultural communication, interpersonal and small-group interaction, and the impact of diversity on informal and formal organizations.

General Studies: Global Communities, Societies and Individuals

This course fulfills the ASU Global Communities, Societies and Individuals General Studies requirement. Students completing a Global Communities, Societies and Individuals course will be able to:

- Describe historical, contemporary, or transforming global issues through the perspective of specific individuals, communities, or societies.
- Analyze the interactions among social, political, economic, or cultural systems across local, regional, and global scales or spaces.
- Articulate ways in which dimensions of difference such as race, gender, socio-economic status, religion, language, or citizenship separately and together affect individuals and communities.
- Communicate coherent arguments using evidence drawn from qualitative or quantitative sources.

Course Objectives:

1. To introduce students to historical, contemporary, and transforming global and domestic issues from the perspective of specific individuals, communities, and societies. (GCSI L01)
2. To provide students with an understanding of the interactions among social, political, economic, and cultural systems across local, regional, and global scales or spaces. (GCSI L02)
3. To explore the concepts of prejudice, discrimination, bias, and privilege, and examine how individual identity shapes interactions with others.
4. To explore how dimensions of difference, such as race, gender, socio-economic status, religion, language, and citizenship, separately and collectively affect individuals, organizations, and communities. (GCSI L03)
5. To examine how social and organizational structures create and perpetuate different forms of inequality in society.
6. To provide opportunities for students to develop intercultural skills for effective leadership in diverse organizations.
7. To introduce students to methods for constructing coherent arguments using evidence from qualitative and quantitative sources. (GCSI L04)

Expected Learning Outcomes:

- Students will be able to describe historical, contemporary, or transforming global and domestic issues through the perspective of specific individuals, communities, or societies. (GCSI L01)
- Students will be able to analyze the interactions among social, political, economic, or cultural systems across local, regional, and global scales or spaces. (GCSI L02)
- Students will be able to identify prejudice, discrimination, bias, and privilege and examine how one's identity influences interactions with others.
- Students will be able to articulate ways in which dimensions of difference, such as race, gender, socio-economic status, religion, language, or citizenship, separately and together affect individuals, organizations, and communities. (GCSI L03)
- Students will be able to analyze how structures create and reproduce different forms of inequality in organizations and society.
- Students will develop intercultural skills for effective leadership in diverse organizations.

- Students will be able to communicate coherent arguments using evidence drawn from qualitative or quantitative sources. (GCSI L04)

Course Materials: All Course Materials are included within the course as part of the Inclusive Access Program and will automatically be charged to your Bursar account. You will be emailed two codes from the bookstore, one for your e-text in Persuall and one for the EI Games Diversity, Inclusion & Equity Game. If you don't receive the code, check your spam folder and email your professor if you can't locate it.

This course uses an e-text in the Perusall social annotation tool that allows students to engage with online readings and videos in a learning environment that encourages collaboration:

Hays-Thomas, R. (2022). Managing Workplace Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: A Psychological Perspective (2nd ed.). Routledge. <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780367808884>
(<https://doi.org/10.4324/9780367808884>)

Additionally, the course uses the "Diversity, Inclusion & Equity Game" game by E.I. Games:
Allen, K. (n.d.). E.I. Games | Diversity, Inclusion & Equity Game. <http://play.eigames.com>
(<http://play.eigames.com>)

*Be on the lookout for the access codes from the bookstore. It will be sent as one email with two codes (Perusall and the Bookstore). Please check your junk and spam folder if you don't see it.

Assignment Descriptions

Detailed grading rubrics for each assignment will be posted in each Module.

Perusall: Your textbook "Managing Workplace Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: A Psychological Perspective" will be assigned through Perusall's online system. The text will be automatically charged to your account through the bookstore. There is no need for you to purchase the book in advance. If you would also like a physical copy, you can purchase it through Amazon.

Perusall is designed to generate discussion. While you read, you can highlight, comment, ask questions, and answer the questions of others. To get the most out of the conversation, your goal should be to make a minimum of 10 substantial comments/questions/answers for each Perusall assignment and log in at least twice, once to post your initial questions and a second time to respond to your peers or to continue conversations that you started with your peers.

Small Group Discussions: Each module contains small group discussions designed to explore different aspects of the curriculum with your peers.

Activities and Questions: The module activities supplement discussions, reflection questions, and writing assignments. They are meant to help make this course more experiential and help those students who learn best by doing. Each activity is accompanied by a short survey that you must complete. (Modules 1,3,4,5)

Interview Paper: You are to interview someone from a culture other than your own and report on the cultural insights you gained. (Module 2)

Cultural Immersion Experience & Paper: This experiential-based assignment allows you to experience a different culture. Families, children, and significant others are encouraged to attend this experience with you. (Module 6)

Final: You are to reflect upon and respond to questions related to the course content. This test is based on the general assessment measures for the OGL program that relate to diversity and inclusion. (Module 6)

Grading

Your grade will be determined based on the following grading schema:

Grade	Points Range
A	1000 - 900
B	899 - 800
C	799 - 700
D	699 - 600
E/F	599 and below

*Note: If you earn over 1000 points, you will receive an A+ for the course.

Policies and Procedures:

Late Policy: Assignments will be penalized by 2% for each day that they are late. Notify the instructor BEFORE an assignment is due if an urgent situation arises and you cannot submit the assignment on time.

Grade Appeals: ASU has formal and informal channels to appeal a grade. If you wish to appeal any grading decisions, please see <http://catalog.asu.edu/appeal> (<http://catalog.asu.edu/appeal>).

Incompletes: The instructor can provide a mark of "I" (incomplete) only when you have completed at least 80% of the course and are otherwise doing acceptable work but cannot complete the course because of illness or other conditions beyond your control. You are required to arrange with the instructor for the completion of the course requirements. The arrangement must be recorded on the Request for Grade of Incomplete form (<http://students.asu.edu/forms/incomplete-grade-request> (<http://students.asu.edu/forms/incomplete-grade-request>)).

Student Standards: Students are required to read and act per university and Arizona Board of Regents policies, including:

The ABOR Code of Conduct: Arizona Board of Regents Policies 5-301 through 5-308: <https://students.asu.edu/srr> (<https://students.asu.edu/srr>)

Academic Integrity: Academic honesty is expected of all students in all examinations, papers, laboratory work, academic transactions, and records. The possible sanctions include but are not limited to, appropriate grade penalties, course failure (indicated on the transcript as a grade of E), course failure due to academic dishonesty (indicated on the transcript as a grade of XE), loss of registration privileges, disqualification, and dismissal. For more information, see <http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity> (<http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity>).

If you fail to meet the standards of academic integrity in any of the criteria listed on the university policy website, sanctions will be imposed by the instructor, school, and/or dean. Academic dishonesty includes borrowing ideas without proper citation, copying others' work (including information posted on the internet), and failing to turn in your work for group projects. Please be aware that if you follow an argument closely, even if it is not directly quoted, you must provide a citation to the publication, including the author, date, and page number. If you directly quote a source, you must use quotation marks and provide the exact citation for each quoted sentence or phrase. You may work with other students on assignments. However, all writing you turn in must be done independently.

If you are still determining whether the form of cooperation you contemplate is acceptable, ask the instructor before submitting an assignment. Please be aware that all students' work submitted electronically can be scanned using SafeAssignment, which compares them against everything posted on the internet, online article/paper databases, newspapers and magazines, and papers submitted by other students (including yourself if submitted for a previous class).

Note: Turning in an assignment (all or in part) you completed for a previous class is considered self-plagiarism and falls under these guidelines. Any infractions of self-plagiarism are subject to the same penalties as copying someone else's work without proper citations.

Students who have taken this class previously and would like to use the work from previous assignments should contact the instructor for permission.

Use of Generative AI: In this course, all assignments must be completed by the student. Artificial Intelligence (AI), including ChatGPT and other related tools used for creating text, images, computer code, audio, or other media, are not permitted for use in any work in this class without written permission from your instructor. Using these tools without the instructor's permission risks your academic integrity. When permission is given, AI should be used cautiously and with proper citations that note its use. AI is not a replacement for your thinking and research.

Using these generative AI tools without the instructor's permission and proper citations violates the ASU Academic Integrity Policy, and students may be sanctioned for confirmed, non-allowable use in this course.

Use of Grammarly: Students can use Grammarly to help improve their writing and check for clarity, spelling, grammar, and punctuation. However, it cannot be used as a form of generative AI to complete assignments. Using Grammarly AI to generate assignments will be considered a violation of the ASU Academic Integrity Policy, and students may be sanctioned for confirmed, non-allowable use in this course.

Prohibition of Commercial Note-Taking Services: Per ACD 304-06 Commercial Note-Taking Services, written permission must be secured from the official instructor of the class to sell the instructor's oral communication in the form of notes. Notes must have the note taker's name, the instructor's name, the course number, and the date.

Student Support and Disability Accommodations: In compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, professional disability specialists and support staff at the Disability Resource Center (DRC) facilitate a comprehensive range of academic support services and accommodations for qualified students with disabilities.

Qualified students with disabilities may be eligible to receive academic support services and accommodations. Eligibility is based on qualifying disability documentation and assessment of individual needs. Students who believe they have a current and essential need for disability accommodations are responsible for requesting accommodations and providing qualifying documentation to the DRC. Every effort is made to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities.

Qualified students who wish to request an accommodation for a disability should contact their campus DRC at <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc> (<http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc>).

If you are a student in need of special arrangements, we will do all we can to help based on the recommendations of these services. For equity for all students, we must make accommodations with formal guidance from these services. Typically, once a student discloses the need for accommodation through their study abroad application, the Study Abroad Office, the academic unit, the student, and DRC will develop a plan to accommodate the student best within the parameters available within the onsite locations.

Disability Accommodations for Students: Students who feel they may need a disability accommodation(s) in class must provide documentation from the Disability Resource Center to the class instructor to verify the need for accommodation and the appropriate accommodation type.

Students who desire accommodations for a disability should contact DRC as early as possible (i.e., before the beginning of the semester) to ensure appropriate accommodations can be provided. It is the student's responsibility to make the first contact with the DRC. Instructors cannot provide accommodations without authorization from the DRC.

Drop and Add Dates/Withdrawals: Please refer to the academic calendar for the deadlines to drop/withdraw from this course. Consult your advisor and notify your instructor if you will drop/withdraw this course. If you are considering a withdrawal, review the ASU policies: Withdrawal from Classes, Medical/Compassionate Withdrawal.

Please note that the ASU Academic Calendar only refers to withdrawal for the academic portion of your study abroad program. Please refer to the Study Abroad Withdrawal Policies for important dates regarding withdrawing from your Faculty Directed program.

Email Communications: All email communication for this class will be done through your ASU email account. You should check your ASU email regularly as you will receive critical information about your class(es) and other essential university updates and information. You are solely responsible for reading and responding, if necessary, to any information communicated via email. For help with your email, go to http://help.asu.edu/sims/selfhelp/SelfHelpHome.seam?dept_pk=822 (http://help.asu.edu/sims/selfhelp/SelfHelpHome.seam?dept_pk=822) and file a help desk ticket by clicking "My Help Center."

Campus Resources:

As an ASU student, you have access to many resources on campus. This includes tutoring, academic success coaching, counseling services, financial aid, disability resources, career and internship help, and many opportunities to get involved in student clubs and organizations.

- Tutoring: <https://tutoring.asu.edu/student-services/tutoring> (<https://tutoring.asu.edu/student-services/tutoring>)
- Counseling Services: <http://students.asu.edu/counseling> (<http://students.asu.edu/counseling>)
- Financial Aid: <http://students.asu.edu/financialaid> (<http://students.asu.edu/financialaid>)
- Disability Resource Center: <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc> (<http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc>)
- Career Services: <http://students.asu.edu/career> (<http://students.asu.edu/career>)
- Student Organizations: <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/mu/clubs> (<http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/mu/clubs>)

Harassment Prohibited: ASU policy prohibits harassment based on race, sex, gender identity, age, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, Vietnam-era veteran status, and other protected veteran status. Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employees or expulsion of students. Contact Student Life (UCB 221) if you feel another student is harassing you based on any of the factors above; contact EO/AA (480-965-5057) if you feel an ASU employee is harassing you.

Establishing a Safe Environment: Learning takes place best when a safe environment is established in the classroom. Per SSM 104-02 of the Student Services Manual, students enrolled in this course are responsible for supporting an environment that nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engaged, honest discussions. The success of the course rests on your ability to create a safe environment where everyone feels comfortable sharing and exploring ideas. We must also be willing to take risks and ask critical questions. Doing so will effectively contribute to our and others' intellectual and personal growth and development. We welcome disagreements in the spirit of critical academic exchange, but please remember to respect others' viewpoints, whether you agree with them or not.

Threatening Behavior: Learning takes place best when a safe environment is established in the classroom. Threatening Behavior is not tolerated. All incidents and allegations of violent or threatening conduct by an ASU student (whether on- or off-campus) must be reported to the ASU Police Department (ASU PD) and the Office of the Dean of Students. If either office determines that the behavior poses or has posed a severe threat to personal safety or the welfare of the campus, the student will not be permitted to return to campus or reside in any ASU residence hall until an appropriate threat assessment has been completed and, if necessary, conditions for return are imposed. ASU PD, the Office of the Dean of Students, and other appropriate offices will coordinate the assessment in light of the relevant circumstances.

Student Conduct Statement: Students are required to adhere to the behavior standards listed below:

- Arizona Board of Regents Policy Manual Chapter V– Campus and Student Affairs: Code of Conduct <https://public.azregents.edu/Policy%20Manual/5-308-Student%20Code%20of%20Conduct.pdf> (<https://public.azregents.edu/Policy%20Manual/5-308-Student%20Code%20of%20Conduct.pdf>)
- ACD 125: Computer, Internet, and Electronic Communications <https://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd125.html> (<https://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd125.html>)
- the ASU Student Academic Integrity Policy <http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/studentlife/srr/index.htm> (<http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/studentlife/srr/index.htm>)

Students are entitled to receive instruction free from interference by other class members. If a student is disruptive, an instructor may ask the student to stop the disruptive behavior and warn the student that such disruptive behavior can result in withdrawal from the course. An instructor may withdraw a student from a course when the student's behavior disrupts the educational process under USI 201-10 (<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/usi/usi201-10.html>) (<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/usi/usi201-10.html>)

Course discussion messages should remain focused on the assigned discussion topics. Students must maintain a cordial atmosphere and use tact in expressing differences of opinion.

Inappropriate discussion board messages may be deleted if an instructor feels it is necessary. Students will be notified privately that their posting was inappropriate. Student access to the course Send Email feature may be limited or removed if an instructor feels that students are sending inappropriate electronic messages to other students.

Religious Accommodations for Students: Per ACD 304-04, students who must be absent from class due to the observance of a religious holiday or participate in required religious functions must notify the faculty member in writing as far before the holiday/obligation as possible. Students will need to identify the specific holiday or obligatory function of the faculty member. Students will not be penalized for missing class due to religious obligations/holiday observances. The student should contact the class instructor to make arrangements for making up tests/assignments within a reasonable time.

Missed Classes Due to University-Sanctioned Activities: In compliance with ACD 304-02, students who participate in university-sanctioned activities that require classes to be missed should be given opportunities to make up examinations and other graded in-class work. However, absence from class or examinations due to university-sanctioned activities does not relieve students from responsibility for any part of the coursework required during the period of absence.

For this policy, the provost of the university or designee shall determine whether a particular event qualifies as a university-sanctioned activity.

In each college, a specific individual (e.g., the dean's designee) should facilitate adherence to this policy. In particular, students who participate in university-sanctioned activities should be allowed to make up examinations or other graded in-class work due to classes missed because of that activity unless it can be shown that such an accommodation would constitute an unreasonable burden on the instructor.

Should a disagreement arise over what constitutes such a burden, the instructor and the student should initially contact the academic unit chair

(<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd002.html#departmentchair>) or the dean's designee.

The specific activity program coordinator (e.g., assistant athletics director for academic services, director of forensics, director of bands) should, as early as possible, provide the college-designated individual with the class schedule of any student who may be required to miss class because of a university-sanctioned activity.

Students should inform their instructors early in the semester of required class absences. Instructors should provide opportunities for equivalent work, either before or after the class absence, per any academic unit (<http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd002.html#department>) or college requirements that may apply.

Only complete grades (I) should be used if deemed necessary by the respective faculty.

Title IX: Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded based on sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex are prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed based on sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed based on sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at <https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs>

(<https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs>)

As a mandated reporter, I am obligated to report any information I become aware of regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence and dating violence. ASU Counseling Services, <https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling> (<https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling>) is available to discuss confidential and private concerns. ASU Online students may access 360 Life Services <https://goto.asuonline.asu.edu/success/online-resources.html>
(<https://goto.asuonline.asu.edu/success/online-resources.html>)

Help: For technical support, use the Help icon in your Canvas course's black global navigation menu or call the ASU Help Desk at +1-(855) 278-5080. Representatives can assist you 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Syllabus Disclaimer: A course syllabus is an educational contract between the instructor and students. Every effort will be made to avoid changing the course schedule, but the possibility exists that unforeseen events will make syllabus changes necessary. The instructor reserves the right to change the syllabus as deemed necessary. Students will be notified promptly of any syllabus changes via email or in the Announcements section on Canvas.
